

Our program is a 10-week internship program. Opportunities include our Development, Marketing, Partnerships, Programs, and People & Culture teams.

FOREFRONT Charity, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, is seeking student with a passion to change the world. We want to raise up world shapers to help make a difference. We want to create an opportunity for students to see the building blocks of a non-profit organization, gain exposure to projects and ignite a fire inside to be an impact in this world.

About our internship program:

Our Summer Internship program is a 10-week program from mid-June to late August. Interns will have a chance to gain exposure to the work this organization is doing. If you are enrolled as a full-time college student, we encourage you to apply to our internship.

Who we are:

FOREFRONT Charity seeks to bring sustainability and empowerment to developing countries. We currently do work in the province of Andhra Pradesh in India. With 21 wells built and an international primary school in the pipeline, we are an organization passionate to act upon our convictions.

What you will be doing:

As a summer intern, you will work closely with one of our departments to execute your own project and gain exposure to what our non-profit organization does. Our team is completely remote, so most communications will be virtual. However, we ask that you meet with your team in person a few times to discuss the projects you will be assisting.

Who should apply:

You are encouraged to apply if you have a passion for helping others, changing with world with innovative technology and a self starter.

What to submit:

Along with your resume, submit a 500 word short response to tell us what you can bring to help our team help others. Identify your passions, skill sets and a proposal of a project you would like to work on during your 10-week internship. In addition, please submit a quick 60 second video introducing yourself.

Recommended skills / characteristics include:

- Full-time college student
- Ability to prioritize and manage multiple tasks
- Proficiency in Google Sites and Microsoft Office
- Creative & self starter to work independently

Logistical details

- Work duration: June 17 through August 23
- The assignment will be for 7 hours a week

Culture and benefits

- Interning at FOREFRONT Charity gives you a unique opportunity to work with individuals in different corporate work settings but collectively have a passion to create a sustainable community in developing countries.
- You will help to develop, execute and expand the work our organization is currently doing.
- The work you will be doing is completely remote so we encourage you to pitch ideas, ask questions and get involved in areas of your own interest.
- FOREFRONT interns benefit from have a influential network, opportunities to get exposure to various different department and projects and great work culture.

Please send all applications to sooji.kim@goforefront.org

FOREFRONT Charity is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Frequently Asked Questions:

I'm a freshman in college. Can I still apply for the internship?

All college students are encouraged to apply for this internship.

Is there a deadline on when I can apply?

Yes. All internships will start the 3rd week of June. All applications will have to submitted by May 22.

Can I work remotely as an intern?

Yes! Our team is remote. However, you will be expected to join the monthly meeting calls during the internship and in person meet ups with your team.